Computer Application Centre, a Government of Orissa Enterprise has already taken steps in promoting the development of software. The Department of Electronics is encouraging the setting up of computer manufacturing unit as well as software industrial unit in Bhubaneshwar.

(c) Encouraging the development of software in the city of Bhubaneshwar has already been taken up by the Government. The large computer of NIC has already arrived in Bhubaneshwar and is in the process of installation and testing. Further promotion of software development would take place after this computer is fully commissioned.

(d) In the discussions with the Department of Electronics and the Government of Orissa, the latter has earmarked land in Chandeka Estate in Bhubaneshwar for the development of electronics, computer peripherals and computer software. Government of Orissa has sold a building to NIC for housing the large computer of NIC.

(e) The above described proposals are already under implementation during 1986-87. However, the setting up of the electronics and computer industrial estate will materialise as and when the letters of intent issued for setting up of industry are progressively implemented.
